ALLEN.

AN ACCOUNT OF GILBERT ALLEN, OF MORRISTOWN, N. J., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

Compiled by John K. Allen, of Lansing, Michigan.

1. GILBERT ALLEN* was born in 1736, and married ELIZABETH LINDSLEY. The first record of him yet found by me is when with Elizabeth, his wife, he entered into covenant with the First Presbyterian church of Morristown, N. J., July 17, 1761; on Aug. 17, 1761, they with their child Abigail, were baptized by Rev. Timothy Johnes, D. D., and on March 4, 1763, he and his wife were received into the church. On Sept. 12, 1777, he was elected a ruling elder of the church, and remained so until his death. On Dec. 1, 1784 the trustees of the church "Agreed and appointed Deacon Allen to call on the Delinquents in Mr. Johnes' Sallary and urge them to pay of their arears or give notes for the Same, & that he shall make abatements at his Discretion and this Bord will pay him for his Services" On Sept. 29, 1787, he gave "1 dol. & 80 ninetieths" "to the trustees of Nassau Hall, for the education of poor and pious youth." On Mar. 23, 1785, "Deacon Allen Reported" to the trustees "that he had called on the Delinquents in Mr. Johnes Sallary according to the Directions of the Trustees and had taken Notes to the amount of £140, 18, 6 and had received cash to the amount of £1, 6, 3, and that he had spent in doing said Business $9\frac{1}{2}$ days for which Service he charges 7s per day amounting to £3, 6, 6." On Jan. 10, 1787, the trustees again requested him to collect money due from the delinquents. On Sept. 20, 1787, the trustees met "and Agreed to new Shingle the Ends and the South Side of the Ruff of the meeting house," and a subscription paper was drawn up, and "the Trustees appointed Deacon Allen to Carry the Subscription through the Congregation for Signers, and this Board will pay him for the same." On June 5, 1788, the Trustees voted "Deacon Allen & Mr. Johnson carry a subscription through the parish to get a sufficient sum for erecting a new meeting-house." On Dec. 3, 1789, Deacon Allen and Mr. Johnson were appointed to collect the amount due on Mr. Johnes' salary; they also "reported that they had presented the subscriptions [for the new meeting-house] to the greatest part of the people of this parish—they then laid the subscriptions before the Board. It appeared that there was a sufficient sum subscribed for inclosing a house of timber according to the estimate." At the meeting of the congregation on Dec. 11, 1789, to instruct the trustees relative to the new meeting-house, he was voted to serve as moderator. He was also moderator at the meeting held Jan. 25, 1790, when it was decided to call Rev. Aaron C. Collins to preach for the church, Dr. Johnes having been obliged to give up the ministry. An "address containing the thanks of the Society" to Mr. Johnes was drawn up, and he, with Silas Condict, was appointed to present the address to him, and also to inform Mr. Collins of the call from the church. On Feb. 1, 1790, the trustees drew up for Rev. Mr. Johnes a subscription paper, and Deacon Allen and Mr. Johnson were appointed to take it through the society for signatures. At a meeting of the congregation, Oct. 8, 1790, Deacon Allen was made moderator. He was also appointed one of 12 called a "committee of Directors," with "leave to add or to take from the length or breadth of the said new meeting-house any number of feet not exceeding five. That the said committee have leave to apply to the Legislature for the privilege of a Lottery to raise a sum of money equal to the expense of building the new meeting-house." "The work [on the new meeting-house] was commenced in the spring of 1791. The head carpenter was Major Joseph Lindsley, assisted by Gilbert Allen, both Elders in the church, and men of great moral worth, and highly beloved by the congregation. The frame was raised on Sept. 20, 1791, and on several successive days. Some 200 men assisted in the work."* At a meeting of the parish, Feb. 22, 1792, he was appointed one of a committee to consider adding to Rev. Mr. Collins' salary. He was moderator of a meeting of the parish Jan. 24, 1793, and was appointed, with George Tucker, to call on the people for money to liquidate the church building debt. When Rev. Mr. Collins left the church, Dea. Allen was one of a committee appointed Sept. 2, 1793, to settle with him as to his salary. Dea. Allen was moderator at a meeting Dec. 25, 1793, at which his son Silas was appointed one of two choristers. Deacon Allen opened with prayer and was appointed moderator of a meeting held July 21, 1794, at which it was voted to extend a call to Rev. James Richards. He purchased a part of the Mulberry Nursery sold by the church April 1, 1795. On April 22, 1795, he was appointed one of the managers to finish the new meeting house.

He was a soldier in the Revolutionary war, and his name is given on page 487 of General W. S. Stryker's "Official Register of the Officers and Men of New Jersey in the Revolutionary War. Trenton. 1872."

His will, † together with a copy of his signature to it, is as follows:

Item: It is my will and I do order that no wood or timber shall be cut off from my said real estate except for the use of said farm during the life time of my said son Timothy Allen; and it is my will that should my son Timothy Allen refuse or neglect to pay the legacies hereinbefore mentioned, in manner aforesaid, that my Executors hereinafter named shall rent my said farm, and with said rents shall pay said legacies. Item: I give and devise unto Jabez Allen, the son of Timothy Allen, three undivided fourths of all my real estate, and I give and devise unto Harriet Allen, daughter of Timothy Allen, one undivided fourth of all my real estate, and their heirs, and should either of said children die without issue, it is my will and I give and devise the whole of my real estate to the survivor. Lastly, I hereby appoint Zophar Freeman, David Mills, Esqr., and Ebenezer H. Pierson, Executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I, the said Gilbert Allen, have hereunto set my hand and seal this eighteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

APPENDIX A.

ANCESTRY OF JOB AND JONATHAN ALLEN, OF MORRIS COUNTY, N. J., AND VICINITY, 1730.

BY HON. EDWIN SALTER, OF WASHINGTON, D. C.

The genealogies of numerous branches of the Allen family are found in Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, Hinman's Early Settlers of Connecticut, 2d edition, Stiles' History of Windsor, Conn., in a number of volumes of the New England Historic-Genealogical Register, and various New England local histories named in Durrie's Hand-book of American Pedigrees.

In examining these different genealogies, none seem to give a clue to the ancestry of Jonathan and Job Allen, of New Jersey, 1730, except the ones relating to the line of Roger Alling, of New Haven, 1639. From circumstantial evidence hereafter given it seems probable that Jonathan and Job Allen were cousins of the first Samuel Alling of Newark and descendants of Roger Alling, whose immediate descendants are herewith given.

In addition to what is hereafter stated, attention may be called to the fact that Rev. Abraham Pierson, so long first pastor of the church at Newark, was an intimate friend of Mrs. John Alling. She was a daughter of Robert Coe, 2d, whose memory was remembered in verses by Rev. Mr. Pierson. As Mr. Pierson located at Newark, it would seem natural that the children of Mrs. John Alling might have been induced to come to New Jersey in part by his advice or example.

ROGER ALLING, NEW HAVEN, 1639; SIGNER OF COMPACT.

Roger Alling, the founder of one branch of the Alling or Allen family, is named among the one hundred and eleven who signed the New Haven compact, June, 1639.* He came to New Haven in a ship with Capt. Lamberton. On the voyage the steward of the ship died, and Roger, though a passenger, being young and unmarried, was induced to act temporarily. The wages allowed the steward for the voyage was £5 10s—quite a large sum for that day. In the division of lots at New Haven, 1640, he was awarded an eligible one, as may be seen by the map of the division of the lots copied in Atwater's New Haven. He was evidently an enterprising, useful, and trusted citizen. He early became a member of the church, deacon, member of the Legislature, and was Treasurer of the colony from 1661 to 1663. The division of the seats in the church at New Haven is given in Atwater's New Haven, and the location of the seats of Roger and his son John and their wives are stated. At that time the men occupied one side of the church and the women the other. In the church list the son Samuel's name is not given, which would lead to the supposition that he might be the Samuel of Hempstead, 1665-83, were it not for the mention of his name, or of one Samuel Alling, as a Proprietor, 1685, in Bradley's list. The assignment of seats in the church in Atwater's "History of the Colony of New Haven" was previously given in "Hoadly's New Haven Colonial Records." The seats seem to have been assigned by "the court" or colonial assembly. In Roger Alling's pew was the following arrangement of persons, viz.: "Thomas Munson, John Livermore, Roger Alling, Joseph Nash, Samuel Whitehead, Thomas James." This Samuel Whitehead was probably ancestor of the Elizabeth and Newark families of the name. "Sister Alling," wife of Roger, had a corresponding pew on the opposite or women's side. Their assignment of seats is again given, 1656 and 1662. In 1663 the "court agreed with Roger Alling for all the wampum left in his hands (as jurisdiccon treasurer) to let him have it for thirty pounds in jurisdiccon pay."—[Hoadly New Haven Colonial Records.]

[* In a trial in the General Court of New Haven, Dec. 7, 1647, from the evidence given by Roger Alling, it appears that his father was then living, probably in some seaport town in old England Pp. 343-4, Hoadly's New Haven, Vol. I. J. K. A.]

About the beginning of the year 1643 he married Mary, daughter of Thomas Nash. He had children:

1. MARY, baptized Nov. 26, 1643.
2. ii. SAMUEL, born or bap. Nov. 4, 1645.
3. iii. JOHN, born or bap. Oct. 2, 1647.
4. #ii. JAMES, born or bap. June 24, 1657.

and daughters (iv) Sarah, (v) Elizabeth, and (vi) Susannah, the dates of whose births are not given, but they were probably born between John and James.

2. SAMUEL, son of Roger Alling, married Elizabeth, d. of John Winston, Oct. 24, 1667, and had children:

- i. SAMUEL (2d), born Oct. 16, 1668.
- ii. JOHN, born March 27, 1671.
- iii. JAMES, born July 29, 1673.
- iv. ROGER, born Dec. 9, 1675; died young.
- v. ROGER again, born July, 1677.
- vi. THEOPHILUS, born Feb. 17, 1680.
- vii. DANIEL, born ———

Samuel's wife died Dec. 18, 1682, and he married 2d wife Sarah, d. of John Chedsey, Oct. 26, 1683, and had children: Caleb, Sarah, Elizabeth, and Esther. His oldest son Samuel was the Samuel Alling of Newark. Samuel (1st) is named among Proprietors, 1685, and died Aug. 28, 1707.

3. JOHN, son of Roger (1st), married Jan. 11, 1671, Susannah, daughter of Robert Coe, of Stratford, Conn., and had children:

1. ABIGAIL, born Nov. 23, 1673.
- ii. SUSANNAH, born March 16, 1676; died Oct., 1683.
- iii. HANNAH, born May 23, 1678.
- iv. MARY, born Sept. 14, 1680.
- v. JONATHAN, born Oct. 13, 1683.

"And other children," it is supposed by Savage. He d. March 25, 1717.

[From the following notes, furnished by Prof. Daniel C. Eaton, of Yale College, and taken from the public records of New Haven, it is evident that the family of Sergeant John Alling consisted of the following:

SUSANNAH COE, wife, who outlived him.

Children:

- i. ABIGAIL, b. 23 Nov., 1673; m. — Punderson.
- ii. SUSANNAH, b. 13 March, 1676; d. Oct., 1683.
- iii. HANNAH, b. 23 May, 1678; m. — Brown.
- iv. MARY, b. 14 Sept., 1680; m. — Whitehead.
- v. JONATHAN, b. 13 Oct., 1683.
- vi. SARAH, b. 25 Aug., 1685; m. — Mayfield.
- vii. EBENEZER, b. 22 Nov., 1687.
- viii. STEPHEN, b. 4 March, 1690.
- ix. SUSANNAH, b. 3 Oct., 1693.

The father was at first called "Junr." and afterwards "Sergeant," and at his death "Esquire."

He joined the 1st church, 23 Aug., 1685. He died, 25 March, 1717.

From New Haven Probate Records, IV., p. 461. June 25, 1717.

Mrs. Susannah Alling nominated Excx. in ye last will of Jon Alling, Esqr., Dec'd.

WILL.

In the name of God, Amen: I, John Alling, of New Haven in New England, at the time living in a competent measure of health (blessed be God), do make and ordain this my last will and testament, in manner following.

It names the following heirs: my son Jonathan Alling; my son Ebenezer Alling; my son Stephen Alling; my three sons Jonathan, Stephen and Ebenezer; my five daughters, viz., Abigail, Hannah, Mary, Sarah and Susannah; my daughters Abigail Punderson, Hannah Brown, Mary Whitehead, Sarah Mayfield, Susannah Alling; my loving wife Susannah Alling; dated 8 March, 1714.

The name Job Alling does not occur in any of the town, probate or church records, so far as examined.—J. K. A. July 12, 1883.]

4. JAMES, "of Salisbury," son of Roger 1st, graduated at Harvard, 1679, and was third minister of Salisbury, coming as successor to the celebrated Rev. Mr. Wheelwright, of Antinomian fame, and married (1688) Elizabeth, daughter of Rev. Seaborn Cotton, of Hampton, a noted clergyman. He had children:

- i. JOANNA, born March 5, 1690.
- ii. MARY, born April 10, 1692.
- iii. ELIZABETH, born Sept. 2, 1694.

James Alling died March 3, 1695, and his widow married, March 14, 1699, Rev. Caleb Cushing. A notice of Rev. James Alling may be found in N. E. Hist. and Gen. Register, vol. 6, page 371.

Roger Alling, the founder of the family, died Sept. 27, 1674. In his will he names five children, and directs that his son James, who subsequently graduated at Harvard, be brought up to learning. Atwater's History of the Colony of New Haven gives some particulars of the first steps taken by Roger Alling to insure the education of his son James.

Nash's Genealogy of the Nash family copies the following: "Roger Alling, Deacon of ye Church of Christ in New Haven dyed ye 27th of Sept. 1674." His wife Mary died Aug. 16, 1683. Roger Alling's three sons are named in Bradley's list of New Haven Proprietors, 1685, given in New England Historical and Genealogical Register, first volume, p. 157. It says among proprietors were: Serg't John Alling; Mr. James Alling; John Alling, Sr.; and Samuel Alling. The John Alling, Sr., was, according to Savage, of another family, and probably son of a Samuel Alling. A John Alling took the oath of fidelity, 1654, as stated in Hoadly's New Haven Colonial Records; the date shows he could not have been Roger's son John, who was born only seven years previous. John, son of Roger, was twelve times elected as a member of the Connecticut Legislature, it is said.

ALLING FAMILY OF NEWARK.

In the volume of "Bi-Centennial Proceedings of Newark, 1866," are notices of early settlers, by S. H. Congar. On page 139 is the following, among those who came some years after the first settlement: "Samuel Alling, Esq., or Allen, was grandson of Roger Alling, who at settlement at New Haven, 1639, signed the compact, and married Mary Nash, and in 1645 had Samuel, who in Oct., 1667, married Elizabeth Winston. They had Samuel, who, with nine brothers and sisters, were all living 1709. His will (1732) names children Samuel, Thomas Ezekiel, Unice Sergeant, Elizabeth Curry and Sarah Dod." (Here follows names of a Deacon Samuel and wife Abigail Prudden Allen's children; he died 1795.)

There was a John Allen named as overseer of the poor in the first charter of the borough of Elizabethtown, Feb. 8, 1739-40 (legal year 1739, calendar year 1740).—[Hatfield.] Jonathan Allen is named among Associates, 1729; he is also named as one to aid in settling western bounds of Elizabethtown purchase.—[Hatfield.] Jonathan and Joseph Allen are named among first settlers at New Providence, to which settlers went from Elizabethtown, 1736-8. Joseph was one of the founders of the Presbyterian church at New Providence.—[Hatfield.] The above Jonathan and Joseph may be the ones named in Littell's Settlers of Passaic Valley. There was a Jonathan Alling, son of John and grandson of Roger the first, who was born 1683. Was this Jonathan the same? The writer has found no mention of him in Connecticut records, and from his age, religious proclivities, and associates, thinks it probable he was the grandson of Roger Alling.

CAPT. JOB ALLEN, OF ROCKAWAY.

Rev. Dr. Jos. F. Tuttle, in his address on the history of Morris county, published in N. J. Historical Society Proceedings, May, 1869, says:

"Capt. Job Allen, a carpenter, a very public spirited man and a good citizen, whose influence in founding the church was very marked."

It is found that he was engaged in building a smelting forge, 1730. Possibly he was a carpenter first and then, perhaps advised or assisted by David Beaman or Gilbert Hedden, entered into the iron business. (See Tuttle's Morris for notice of Beaman and Hedden.) He died Nov. 5, 1767. His age is not given, but it is evident he was well along in years, and his age would correspond with one of the supposed "other children" of John, son of Roger Alling, referred to by Savage. His religious proclivities and his appearing in Morris about the same time as did Jonathan in that vicinity, with settlers of New Haven origin, who came by way of Long Island, and no Allens known to have come from elsewhere, leads to the supposition that Capt. Job was a brother of Jonathan and a younger son of John Alling, son of Roger. The following lamentation upon his death was written and published at the time:

"A LAMENTATION ON THE DEATH OF CAPTAIN JOB ALLEN OF ROCKAWAY, WHO DEPARTED THIS LIFE NOVEMBER THE FIFTH, 1767, AGED —. WHEREIN HE IS LAMENTED BY THE COUNTY, TOWN AND CHURCH, WIDDOW AND CHILDREN."

The County Laments Him

- 2 The County has great cause to Mourn
he being took away
Who was to it a great support
A blessing and a stay
- 3 Is the Man Dead who was Beloved by all that Did him know Let this affect the County all with Sorrow grief and woe
- 4 But O my soul—why do I mourn for such a man as this for god has took him to himself into the Realms of Bliss
- 5 Now thou art gone to paradise with god forever Dwell tho thou art Dead thy Name shall Live and Now Dear friend farewell

The township Laments him

- 1 have we provoked the most high thus upon us to frown in taking from us a support of our young infant town
- 2 Let us Repeat with mournful tears and to our god now pray that he would make up this great Loss to mourning Rockaway

The Church Laments him

- 1 Dear friend we mourn at Loss of the and to the Lord we cry to sanctify the Death to us who was a brother N^gh.
- 2 A pillar in the Church of Christ
that's gathered in this place
A man Beloved by Christians all
A man endowed with grace
- 3 the Church Doth Mourn under her Loss which she Doth Now Sustain to her indeed it is a Loss but unto him a gain
- 4 A Ruling elder he was Chose and gave the Church Content and as a Deacon he Did serve in times of Sacrament
- 5 As he Did strive with all his might to gain the better part god has been pleased to grant to him the wishes of his heart.
- 6 from sin and sorrow pain and Death
the mighty god of Love Did send to fetch him from the Earth unto the Realms above
- 7 Now he is gone unto the Lord and entered into rest Which christ has purchased for them who are forever blest

- 8 Let his remove out of the church a warning be to all to be prepared to follow who thus by Death Did fall
- 9 Now he is gone from Church on earth to Join the Church above in Singing of the praise of god for his redeeming Love
- 10 Let every one of us prepare and hearken to god's voice that when were called away from hence with him we may rejoice

The widdow Laments him

- 1 Look on thy mourning handmaid Lord
I cry unto my god for to support and Comfort me
under his Chastening rod
- 2 the Lord who gave has took away and blessed be his name
May this Affecting providence bring me to humble frame.
- 3 the Lord is Just who did command
Death for to take away
A husband Dear who was to me a guide support and stay.
- 4 O Let thy word be verified
O Let thy grace Demand O Raise my heart unto my god who has removed my friend
- 5 May I a widdow put my trust in him that Dwells above that when all earthly friends do fail
I may enjoy his Love
- 6 Now I prepare to follow him which I do well remember who Left this world and went to god
the fifth of Last November
- 7 one thousand and seven hundred and to it sixty seven!
the pilgrim bid this world adieu and took his flight to heaven

The Children Laments him

- 1 our Dear fathers Dead and gone who was so kind a friend and Left us orphans for to Mourn and to Lament his end
- 2 We do Lament our father's Death
We Do Lament our loss and beg of god to give us grace to hear so great a cross.
- 3 Lord be our father and our guide instruct us now in youth for to submit to every Cross and Cleave unto the truth.

DEACON GILBERT ALLEN.

Deacon Gilbert Allen died Jan. 6, 1816, aged 80 years; by this it would seem he was born about 1736.

The name Gilbert is an unusual one. But there was a prominent early settler in that section named Gilbert Hedden, who in a deed is spoken of as from North Carolina. He built a grist mill, rolling mill, etc., and he was associated with Capt. Job Allen in establishing the church, as stated by Rev. Dr. Tuttle. By the Morris church records there appears to have been a Gilbert Hedden 2d. In New Jersey the name Hedden is very commonly mis-called Heady, even to this day. In Ocean county the Heddens are nearly always called Headys, and this mispronunciation was common in Morris the last century, as seen by the church records, and by Stryker's list of officers and soldiers.

Deacon Allen's unusual first name suggests the probability that it was derived from Gilbert Hedden, with whom Capt. Job was intimately associated, and that one of Gilbert's ancestors, perhaps his father, had married a relative, perhaps a daughter, of Gilbert Hedden.

Deacon Gilbert Allen was not only a soldier of the cross, but a soldier of his country as well. Among noted Revolutionary heroes in that section was Joseph Hedden. If the supposition is correct that he was related to the Hedden family, he was probably a comrade in arms of Joseph Hedden. In Littell's Settlers of Passaic Valley mention is made of a Joseph and a Daniel Allen, of perhaps a third generation of Allens in that section. Joseph and Daniel are not common names in the Allen family; they may be derived from families into which the Allens had married. A noted Hedden was named Joseph; and a soldier in the Revolution was named Allen Hedden. These names indicate that the Allen and Hedden families were allied by marriage, as well as by intimate church, patriotic and neighborly ties.

Joseph Hedden, an active soldier, was captured by the British at Newark, taken from a sick bed in his night clothes, compelled to follow on the ice to New York, where he was confined in the sugar house prison, and died in a few days. (See Howe's N. J. Historical Collections, p. 180.)

According to Rev. Dr. Brown's History of Congregationalism, Gilbert Allen was born before the church assumed the Presbyterian form of government. Hence his baptism is not in the printed Morris records. It would be in the previous Congregational records, which are probably lost.

INFERENCES.

In the absence of positive information as to the ancestry of Deacon Gilbert Allen, the known facts and circumstantial evidence render it not only possible but very probable that Jonathan and Job Allen were cousins of the first Samuel Alling of Newark, and that Deacon Gilbert's pedigree may have been as follows: (1) ROGER ALLING, of New Haven, who had a son (2) JOHN, born 1647, who had sons Jonathan and a younger one born between 1685-90, named (3) JOB, who came to New Jersey with Jonathan and married a Hedden, and had a son (4) GILBERT ALLEN, born 1736. [From the notes furnished me by Prof. Eaton, and inserted above, it will be noticed that the will of John Alling mentions no son Job.—J. K. A. July 12, 1883.]
